

6516206901.txt

Satellite Radio is just as much a public service as RF radio. Please see that this communication source does not have it's future public services diminished by any monopolistic interests. Someday, all radio (and TV) may be satellite delivered....it would be a major evolution of media delivery to the public.
Thanks

Keith Swinehart
303-814-0800